

On June 1-4 2008, hundreds of nonprofit professionals will converge on our nation's capital to act collectively for positive change in our sector and our communities

2008 nonprofit congress

Convene • Connect • Commit

June 1 - 4 | Hyatt Regency Capitol Hill | Washington, D C

Will you be one of them?

Convene

in our nation's capital

Connect

with peers from across the country

Commit

to creating positive change

The Opportunity

Expand your network, learn new strategies, and share your ideas and resources with a diverse group of professionals from all subsectors. Gain inspiration from noted plenary speakers and from the work done across the country by your fellow attendees. Build on our collective successes and lay the foundation for continued work in local communities. Join together with thousands of other nonprofits who have affirmed their commitment to the values held by the sector through their daily actions. Hear input gathered from nonprofit leaders in the field who have participated in local Town Hall Meetings.

The Event

From June 1 - 4, 2008, over 800 nonprofit professionals like you will join together in Washington, DC for four days of celebration, learning, and action. Nonprofit Congress 2008 - Convene • Connect • Commit is designed to build on and celebrate the accomplishments of nonprofits across the country that are committed to positive change for our sector and our communities.

Who Should Attend?

YOU! This conference is designed for all those who are involved in or care about the future role of the nonprofit sector. We seek attendees from every state and subsector, large organizations, small organizations, emerging leaders, seasoned professionals, executives, program staff, board members, funders, and volunteers. If you have a commitment to or interest in the nonprofit sector, join us for this event.

The Location

Nonprofit Congress 2008 - Convene • Connect • Commit will be held in beautiful Washington, DC at the Hyatt Regency Washington on Capitol Hill. You will be within walking distance (or a short trip on public transportation) of dozens of monuments, museums, memorials, and other attractions throughout the city. Don't miss this opportunity to see some of our nation's treasures. For room rates, airfare discounts, and more local information, please visit www.nonprofitcongress.org/travel.

Highlights

2008 Nonprofit Expo - June 1-2

Don't miss our first ever Nonprofit Expo. This is your opportunity to learn about the latest products and services geared to help your organization maximize effectiveness and save time and money! Spend dedicated time with exhibitors at the grand opening on June 1, prior to the event kickoff on June 2. Raffles and giveaways will take place throughout the Expo.

Networking Sessions - June 2-3

Share your successes, highlight your programs, and promote your work during our innovative networking sessions. We invite all attendees to bring information about your organization's projects to share with others and facilitate new connections.

Educational Sessions - June 2-3

Learn new skills and strategies to advance your organization and your career. Topics will include advocacy, building public awareness, organizational accountability, and leadership. In keeping with the democratic nature of the Nonprofit Congress, registrants will be invited to vote on the sessions prior to finalizing the program.

Lobby Day - June 4

Join us as we carry the message of a united nonprofit sector to Capitol Hill. Meet with your Congressional delegation and let them know about the impact nonprofits are having in the communities they represent. Strengthen your relationship with your elected officials, inform them about the issues affecting the sector, and invite them to visit your organization during the upcoming recess.
